

Cream PVCu

Last Updated Tuesday, 21 July 2009

PVCu Windows, Doors & Conservatories now available in Cream White can sometimes look a little bit startling if it doesn't fit with style of your house. So why compromise if you now can have a choice not only in style but also in colour? Cream is a stylish alternative to white and it comes with all the maintenance free characteristics of white PVCu. Our cream profile is extruded PVCu, which means that the colour is constant right through to the core. Or if you fancy a sprayed product, then the colour possibilities are endless! Special Summer/Autumn Offer Free Punnet of Strawberries with every Cream Order
